

Announcement:

On November 1st, 2001, CourtAlert™ will start producing an e-mail alert for every Opinion, Judgment, Order, Signed Stipulation, Decision, Endorsed Memorandum, etc. that is recorded and for every judge's calendar that is reported by the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (SDNY - Manhattan location presently). The White Plains location of the SDNY will be coming soon. In addition, CourtAlert announces today a PDF Document Retrieval Service.

Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft; Chadbourne & Parke LLP; Cleary, Gottlieb, Steen & Hamilton; Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson; Greenberg Traurig; Piper Marbury Rudnick & Wolfe LLP; Rosenman & Colin LLP; Shearman & Sterling; and Willkie Farr & Gallagher have engaged in extensive testing with the CourtAlert system for the SDNY and have reported full satisfaction and excitement with the service.

Starting today, we will begin accepting cases to be added to your SDNY Watch List on www.CourtAlert.com.

CourtAlert for SDNY

CourtAlert collects and supplies all the information provided by the court that has been traditionally collected by other systems. The law firms that have tested the system have indicated that the SDNY CourtAlerts arrive earlier than any other service. Our alerts are extremely accurate since we use exact docket numbers where available instead of searching party names. Our Calendar Alerts are available as soon as the courtroom deputies make them available and not just before the appearance date.

In addition to our Alert services, CourtAlert will also be providing an interactive Calendar Display. The Calendar Display provides judges calendars including any special instructions for a specific date.

Cost: The same rate as the State CourtAlert service -- 45 cents per workday per case ($9 per case for an average 20 workday month). No new contracts need to be signed for the SDNY service.

Get started: For your SDNY cases to be watched by CourtAlert they need to be placed on your "Approved Watch List." Please take note, that CourtAlert will watch any SDNY case (as it will watch any NYS Court case), the case does not specifically have to be your firm's case. CourtAlert watches cases by docket number, where possible, and also by name, where case number is not provided by the courts. A new "Quick Entry" program now allows entry of cases for both your State and SDNY cases. Your “Approved Watch List” can be reviewed online where you can easily add or delete cases.

CourtAlert’s staff is happy to enter your cases onto your “Approved Watch List” at no additional charge. Please provide a list of your cases – with the Docket Number, Parties, Client Number and Matter (recommended) and optional lawyer(s) names and fax your list of cases to 212-202-6069.

If you currently use MA-3000 (a registered name of Law.com), you may want to produce a “Header Report” onto a File, and provide this file to us via diskette or as an attachment to an e-mail to Support@CourtAlert.com. We will automatically select the appropriate jurisdiction and will create your “Approved Watch List” for you, with the appropriate client information.

Document Retrieval

Scope: As strongly suggested by many of our customers, CourtAlert will now offer document retrieval services. CourtAlert will allow customers to place an order for a document on-line. Once a document has been retrieved, CourtAlert will send you an alert, and you will be able to directly retrieve your documents with a click of your mouse. CourtAlert will deliver the retrieved documents online as PDF files, e-mail attachments and/or traditional fax transmissions. Please note, that CourtAlert will retrieve documents for any SDNY case (as it will retrieve documents for any NYS Supreme Court, New York County case), the case does not specifically have to be your firm’s case.

Get Started: Document Retrieval orders can be placed by any of the following ways:

1. Clicking on a CourtAlert e-mail which advises you of a new decision, order, endorsed memorandum etc., or,
2. Marking a SDNY case in your “Approved Watch List” with a “Blanket” Order. For those cases, CourtAlert will automatically copy all documents that are signed by the judge and provide them to you, or,
